

Sakura Martial Arts Supplies & Battleground Tactical Gear Presents:

MARTIAL TACTICAL TRAINING

WAY BEYOND MARTIAL "ARTS"

WHAT: Modern day reality based martial tactical training sessions for personal protection. Specialized training sessions specifically designed for today's private citizens. Training fundamentals will include both armed and unarmed practical solutions geared toward aggressive encounters. The tactics and techniques covered will include applications of recommended modern daily carry items and their unarmed equivalents. These unique protection technologies are taught to elite Military, Law Enforcement, & Security personnel. Note: Do not confuse or compare this type of specialized training with common self-defense or martial "arts" methods.
